Before admission all boys are subjected to an educational, general, and medical test as to their suitability for admission. Selection of boys for admission rests with Her Majesty's Commissioners. Preference in general is given to total orphans, to those whose fathers have been killed in action or have died while in the Service or after leaving the Service, and to motherless boys whose fathers are serving abroad.

Records show that many of the 45,000 veterans of the 1914–18 War overcame the handicaps imposed by amputation and the majority are leading full and useful lives today. But there were others, too. B. L. E. S. M. A. is doing everything in its power to help ALL limbless men and to see that they are ALL given the best chance—that a future of inevitable unemployment and neglect shall not be their lot . . . that they shall never join the ranks of the "Forgotten men".
